

Your pupil's class teacher should be your first point-of-contact. After that, you may choose to meet with the SENCo.

Mr Thelwell is the SENCo who leads and manages the SEND provision across the school. He can be contact via the school office, telephone (01543 227160) or email (office@highfields.staffs.sch.uk)

Who should I contact if I feel my child may have SEN?

Who is the SENCo?
What do they do?

Special Education Needs and Disability (SEND) at Highfields

How is SEND identified?

What SEND is supported?

How do we support SEND?

- Parent, pupil and class teacher conversations
- In class pupil observations
- Looked at pupil's work
- Assessment information, e.g. standardised scores
- External agency reports

- Communication and Learning, e.g. Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)
- Cognition and Learning, e.g. Dyslexia
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health, e.g. ADHD
- Sensory and/or Physical Needs, e.g. Hearing impairment

- Quality first teaching
- Reasonable adjustments (changes in class to help)
- Small group support
- One-to-one support
- External agency support, e.g. Autism Outreach Team